GLOBAL EXPEDITION

Join the expedition in Africa for an adventure of a lifetime...

Namaste!

Welcome to the Africa Plan of the Namaste Global Expedition, an amazing around the world adventure. Join me on the expedition for a weekend, a week, a month or longer, and it is up to us to decide what we want to do.

Explore this guide (to be updated monthly), which should give you some idea of the expedition plan for Africa, though this is subject to variation depending upon conditions, politics and what you would like to do. Explore the other info documents for more detail, including how to join the expedition.

If you need anything more, please don't hesitate to contact me, by email, fax or phone. I look forward to your suggestions and ideas; and travelling with you soon...

Cheers, Chris

Africa Route Plan

Africa. This vast and diverse continent of 53 countries stretches from the Cape of Good Hope to the shores of the Mediterranean. Encompassing the world's largest desert and one of its most extensive rainforests, it is the adventurer's last frontier. Whether it's the stunning wastes of the Sahara Desert with its barren mountains, the inspiring beauty of snow-capped Kilimanjaro rising sheer from the East African plateau, the lush, mist-covered volcanoes and lakes of Kenya's Rift Valley, colourful tribal peoples, or the lure of ancient Egypt, this continent has them all. And of course, the large numbers of big game that still roam the plains of this fascinating land make Africa the king of safari...

Highlights...

Perhaps nowhere in the world will you find such a variety of cultures, vistas, contrasts and contradictions, cities ancient and modern as in Africa. From the snow-capped peaks of Kilimanjaro and Mt Kenya, to the scorching heat of the desert; from the impenetrable jungles of the Congo, to the silver-sanded beaches bordering the Indian Ocean.

A key theme of the Namaste Africa Expedition will be to explore many of the continent's game reserves, whilst touring through this continent full of culture and design, of music and dancing, with a wealth of wildlife, flora and fauna. Some of the planned highlights include:

May 2005

Time to explore gorgeous Cape Town, built on the peninsula of the Cape of Good Hope with Table Mountain as a backdrop before heading north through the western Cape to the Tswalu Kalahari Reserve & rhino sanctuary...

June 2005

Exploring Namibia's incredible landscapes from the Fish River Canyon in the south to the Skeleton Coast in the north; from the Namib Desert in the west to the Caprivi Strip in the northeast. Touring the Okavango Delta, Makgadikgadi pan & diamond mines of Botswana on route to Victoria Falls...

July 2005

Touring south through eastern Botswana and southern Zimbabwe, through South Africa's legendary Kruger National Park, before exploring Mozambique's Indian Ocean coastline. Then north through Malawi, often known as 'little Switzerland' owing to its beauty...

August 2005

Across the great plains of Tanzania before climbing Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest at 5,895m (19,340 ft). Then to the coast for some relaxation and diving on Zanzibar before a journey inland through Kenya's incredible game parks, including Tsavo & the Masai Mara. And in both countries, a chance to see much of the Great Rift Valley, one of Africa's most spectacular sights...

September 2005

Through the Kabalega and Ruwenzori national parks of Uganda; and unforgettable river journeys on Africa's second biggest river in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Discovering the equatorial jungle, exotic butterflies and the pygmies of the Central African Republic before crossing to the Waza National Park of northern Cameroon...

October 2005

A visit to the capital of Burkina Faso, Ouagadougou, once the centre of one of the ancient Mossi kingdoms; and the famous red, white and black Volta rivers. Onto historic Mopti, the 'Venice of Mali' founded in the 13th century and the legendary Timbuktoo before experiencing the unique lifestyle of the nomads of Niger...

November 2005

From the mountains of Guinea to the Adrar plateau of Mauritania; the Atlantic coast of the Gambia and Senegal, before turning north through Mauritania along the western Sahara before a tour of the length of the Atlas Mountains and ancient cities of Morocco...

December 2005

Exploring Roman ruins of coastal Libya; and the scenic and pre-historic wonders of its Fezzan region. Then into Egypt to explore the the Gifl Kebir plateau, the Nile river region, Cairo and the pyramids, the Great

What do people think...?

Over 30 people from 8 countries joined Chris on the Namaste Global Expedition in North, Central & South America; and countless others from the countries visited and fellow travellers became a part of the fun and adventure...

"Thank you for giving me the opportunity to meet all the wonderfully inspiring people along the way [from Guatemala City to San Jose, Costa Rica], the chance to see places I had so far only dreamt of, and the experience I've so longed for. Namaste... PS. See you again in Africa"

Heidi Bliedung, 32, from Canada, October 2004

"Thanks for a great week. Country, scenery, activities etc all superb - your company priceless, thanks..." Paul Dollin, 33, from England, December 2004

"I just spent the most amazing week on expedition with Chris. He is without doubt the most travelled person I have ever met. In particular, thank you for giving me the chance to go horse-riding in the mountains of Yellowstone National Park, with amazing views and 2,000 foot cliffs just inches away...what a rush! Let's do it again soon... In fact, I plan to join the trip again, hopefully horse-riding in Nepal..." Tami Linne, 40, from USA, July 2004

"Thank you for an amazing way to see my country" Raul, 27, from Mexico, September 2004

"It is without a doubt one of the best and most important decisions of my life. After all, life is an adventure..." Vaughan, 57 from USA, March 2005

"In the small time I was able to spend with Chris, he definitely made me think. Life was meant to be experienced throughout all ages of one's life... There is only a small window in your life when one can just go for it and worry about things after the fact. I'm sure I'm like every one else out there, dying to join Chris for every single adventure, large or small..." Brandon, 22 from Panama, November 2004

"Much thanks Chris... Your journey inspires me. Live well..." Nazzzy King, 19 from Canada, January 2005

"It was the experience of a lifetime! Travelling by car was definitely much more real than by plane or even bus. It allows you the freedom to chart your own course and stop whenever and wherever your heart or head guides you. You rock Chris for being able to do what you are doing. Thanks again for sharing the expedition with me. I will never forget my adventure with you." Katy, 26 from USA, September 2004

"I wanted to tell you how much I enjoyed the Aconcagua trip and appreciated all the efforts you put in to make it such a success. It was evident that you had gone to great lengths to ensure that we would have a well run trip, without it feeling 'packaged'..." Gregor Tait, 38 from England, February 2005

"Remarkable - that about sums it up! Come fly with us again..." Dianne, 35 from Canada, June 2004

"GREAT!" Ase Bente Sinnes, 28 from Norway, February 2005

"A new and fantastic experience..." Emma Verity, 31, from England, March 2005

"In Chris we found a person who was truly a citizen of the world and a person of great understanding and we spent numerous hours talking about the world and telling stories about our adventures and experiences. Chris's stopover in Britt was certainly a great experience and I still regularly follow his adventures through the Namaste News and I contact him when I can..." Tyler, from Canada, April 2004:
